

ANESA 2019 Convention Program

Day	Time	Activities
Thursday, May 9th	5:00 - 6:45 pm	Arrivals, registration, mingling, networking, reception
	6:45-7:00	Welcome, Greetings and Program Logistics
Friday, May 10th	8:00-9:00 AM	Breakfast, registration, mingling and networking
	9:00-9:30	Introduction of participants, Welcome Address & the Role of Association of Nigerian Engineers & Scientists in the Americas, Inc. in developing Nigeria's local resources for national benefits, Sam James, ANESA President
	9:30-9:45	Remarks By Nigerian Consul General, Hon. (Mrs.) Aishatu Aliyu Musa
	10:00-10:45	A look at Nigeria's Abundant Local Resources, Prof. O. A. Olatidoye, Clark Atlanta University, Atlanta, GA
	11:00-12:00	PowerPoints Presentations/Exhibitions of projects developed, invented, researched, engineered, managed or directed, etc. by Nigerian engineers & scientists <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Environmental Cleanup Remedies, Edward Onyia, Sr. Project Manager, Ohio EPA, Toledo, OH - In-Building Wireless Solutions, Otis Umude, CEO, ifemwireless, Baltimore, MD
	12:00-1:30	Lunch Break
	1:30-2:00	The Way Forward for Iron & Steel Industry in Nigeria, Prof. David Aderibigbe, CEO, i3M Power Systems/Davaa Ltd and Professor of Mechanical Engineering, University of Lagos
	2:15-3:45	Collaborating with NSE Colleagues for National Development, Engr. Kunle Mokuolu, President, Nigerian Society of Engineers
	5:00-5:45	"Electricity Outlook in Nigeria: An Essential Tool for Developing Local Resources for National Benefits" Prof. James Momoh, Chairman & CEO, Nigerian Electricity Regulatory Commission
	6:00	Adjourn

Saturday, May 11th

- 8:00-9:00 Breakfast, socials, mingling, networking
- 9:00-9:45 Presentation: Dr. Joseph Igietseme, Chief, Molecular Pathogenesis Lab, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Atlanta, Georgia
- 10:00-11:00 PowerPoints Presentations/Exhibitions of projects developed, invented, researched, engineered, managed or directed, etc. by Nigerian engineers & scientists
- Steady State Subsea Field Design
Jadesola Ogundeji, Civil Engineering Associate,
City of Los Angeles DPW, Los Angeles, CA
 - Engineering A Safe Airspace & Safe Landing,
Ndubuisi Nnorum, Project Engineering Manager, FAA,
Washington, DC
- 11:15-12:30 Panel Discussion
Topic: Engineers' Role in Developing Local Resources for National Benefits and the Way Forward for Nigeria
Moderator: Sam James, CEO, SACAL Global Solutions
Panelists:
 - Prof. Emeritus Augustine Esogbue, NNOM, GA Tech
 - Dr. James Momoh, Chairman NERC
 - Kunle Mokuolu, President, Nigerian Society of Engineers
 - Ndubuisi Nnorom, Project Engineering Manager, FAA
- 12:30-2:00 Lunch Break
- 2:00-7:00 Open for individual/group site visits, tours, shopping, meeting with prospective employers/employees/networking, etc..
- 7:00-7:45 Dinner
- 8:00-8:10 Introduction of Speaker
- 8:10-9:00 Transfer of Technology for National Resource Development
Prof. Emeritus Augustine Esogbue, NNOM, Georgia Institute of Technology and ANESA Patron
- 9:00-9:10 Thank you
- 9:15-2:00AM Gala night/Party

Sunday, May 12th

Farewell & Departures